Dear Readers, Greetings!

We are back to school after a long vacation and have received a new theme for the year – “Believe in yourself”. We all have geared up to begin the year and to perform well in the upcoming tests. Expectations are high and the will is strong. Believe in yourself and do not follow the throng.

There has been a great buzz about FIFA since the last month. Croatia played its first FIFA World Cup Finale and secured the Silver position, losing 4-2 to France. They have inspired us to have faith in ourselves despite all odds and prove our worth.

A decrease in the temperature has been observed with the arrival of monsoon showers that have relieved us of the scorching heat. Do not forget to carry your rain gears everywhere.

So here we bring to you an edition which describes the increasing fever of football in India.

Happy Reading!

FOOTBALL FEVER

It was an exciting season of complete football extravaganza. Moments which were heart compelling and some heart winning. From Messi missing a penalty to Croatia qualifying for the pool of 16. From defending champions Germany crashing out to Mbappe's glory. This was one of the most celebrated World Cup in which impossible became possible. The journey from the start to the Finals was a thrilling one with the millions of fans around the globe seated to the edge of their seats with great enthusiasm and excitement. Many teams transformed their image in the minds of the fans from the underdogs to legends who are capable of changing the future of football. Players like Kylian Mbappe and Luka Modric proved that Messi and Ronaldo are not the only faces of international football. Some like Romelu Lukaku also proved that one can overcome all odds if he has love and passion for something.

Football in India is gaining huge support and popularity. It has made its place in the hearts of the people. The football fans change their nationalities every four years. All in all, the fans are divided by teams and united by – FOOTBALL.

AGAINST ALL ODDS !

They say no one remember who came in second no matter how vibrant the journey . But the story of a small Mediterranean country Croatia has taught us otherwise . This is a story of valour , of irrepressibility , of bravery beyond what bravery stands for . Croatia you've done the unthinkable and generations and generations will remember your intermiable hardwork and perseverance. They will remember you as liberators. Liberators who emancipated Croatians from being a target of prejudices. Prejudices that demeaned small nations and their capabilities. You have paved your way to stardom, an untouched position which everyone will look upto and it's essence will stay on till eternity.

The sole reason being their faith in their abilities and the fact that they believed in themselves.

Croatia reached the world cup finals defying all odds and proved to be much stronger and way better than expected. The opponents couldn't help but applaud Croatia's victory over them from the bottom of their hearts.

Our hearts go out to you and we proudly say, the cup might not be coming home lads, but a lot more fans are!

The Story of Every Student

With the beginning of school
I knew it was study that will rule
My sports had to be given up
To practice for the board exams coming up
But it was difficult to do so
Why can't I go with the flow?
Play all day
Study all night
But then I used my brain
And realized that this policy would be in vain
For a girl who used to sleep for twelve hours
It was impossible to survive with a rest of two hours
I promised myself that I would study two chapters everyday
I opened the book and stared at it for as long as you may
My thoughts wandered from sports to food
Not having dinner would be rude
I get up and go
Come back with all my energy low
After all I had given myself the stress of multi-tasking
Watching TV, eating food and studying
I assure myself that I will study the next day for sure
But to my distractions there is no cure
I study when the pressure comes to me
And that will happen one night before the exams you'll see

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

KNOCK! KNOCK! And the portals of NVS welcomed me in an overwhelming embrace! The calm, mag-nanimous and homely ambience, instantly made me to feel at home and breathe deep a sigh of relief. The hospitality and the sense of belonging among the Principal and staff (both teaching and non-teaching) eased my anxiety and created a feeling of acceptance and oneness. The students are my challenge to put the best foot forward and receive even as I give. The stay, the work ethics, the working hours and the beautiful aesthetic surrounding makes NVS truly “a home, away from home” for me. May the divine make us a blessing for each other as we discover and live the theme of this year: Believe in yourself!

PRIMARY QUESTION

What would you do if all the teachers were on a leave for a day?

- I would go to Dass sir's house and play with his dogs. –Arnav Kohle.
- We will break all the desks. - Reyansh Machhar, III A.
- We will do party and Bhangda.– Hriday Zambad, IV B.
- I would eat chips and dance saying jinga lala huhu. –Suhaavi Sabharwal, III D.

THE LUNCH

The first day of the academic year 2018-19 gave a big surprise to all the students – the new caterer, Eureka Forbes. The very first day observed a change –more students were seen inside the lunch hall than ever before. Perhaps only to taste the food, but they did serve themselves. And this continues till today. More students are having lunch, a great relief for the teachers, and enjoying it as well. The different kinds of curds, vegetables and supplements are thoroughly enjoyed by students and teachers alike. Not to mention the 'pakoda and paratha ' menu in the rainy weather! Indeed, we hope that our new caterer continues to serve food that we enjoy eating with just one suggestion to find a solution to the plates/spoons and roti shortage crisis.
